MUSINGS CHRISTMAS 2013

Bird in Hand Sparkling - 5 Star Winery James Halliday This is our biggest selling bubbles and has been for the last 4 years. It offers brioche notes, strawberries and a creamy texture year in, year out. It's one of those very rare bubbles that gets a nod from wine lovers and occasional imbibers alike.

The Lane Lois Sparkling This Blanc de Blanc sparkler is all Chardonnay, and has a unique, citrusy tang that makes it a great drink with after-dinner desserts. Fine bubbles dancing balanced flavours across your tongue. Bring on the Creme Brulee!

Two Hands Brilliant Disguise Moscato 500ml This is a beautifully perfumed white frontignac with a few bubbles in it. Smells like a delicate fruit salad perfume and has excellent flavour.

Hunting Creek Limited Release Sauvignon Blanc This a fresh n zesty beast, offering tropical fruits and a crack of greenery. Easy to drink and lovely with antipasto

Tomich Hill Single Vineyard Sauvignon Blanc Classic Adelaide hills Savvy Blanc, incorporating snow pea, lime, lemon and grapefruit along with a little tropical fruit.

Deep Woods Ivory Margaret River SSB - Trophy and 2 Gold Medals This beast has quite intense aromatics and fruit. It melds tropical fruits, passionfruit and a green apple acid crunch with aplomb.

Paxton Wild Yeast Chardonnay At 13% alcohol this is restrained on opening. Worth decanting to see the wines full, complex glory reveal itself. Alternately cellar for 10 years.

Bird in Hand Sauvignon Blanc A classic blend of gooseberry along with passionfruit on the nose. Same again Sam on the palate which is particularly powerful

Padthaway Estate Izzie Sparkling Superlative value for money. Notes of brioche, strawberries and nutmeg. Very expressive flavours here with a fine bead and a long and delicate finish.

Paxton Single Vineyard Pinot Gris - 93 points James Halliday Gob smacked we were. One sniff and we could smell and taste gloriously ripe pear along with its graininess. This is magnificent.

Heirloom Sauvignon Blanc Herby notes along with tinned asparagus. Plenty of flavour here and a crisp, steely finish.

Lucky Country Barossa Sem Sauv Blanc A lovely wine, offering crisp citrus, good mouthfeel and length. May be the perfect pizza white.

Gemtree Tatty Rd. Organic, French Oak Chardonnay This medium bodied chardonnay offers pristine organic fruit matured in French oak for three months. Plenty of stonefruit here and you won't need to be cajoled into considering a second glass.

Paracombe Pinot Gris - Category Winner- Adelaide Review Hot 100 Brilliant pale straw in colour. Mouthwatering aromas of ripe pear and musk on the nose. Flavours of ripe pear, confectionary and spice lead to a very clean, drying finish. Ripper Gris.

Dandelion Eden Valley Riesling - 100 year old Vines, 96 Points Wine Front This intense offering features citrus and bath powder aromatics (swoon) and a pebbly mineral/citrus pallet. Enjoy as an aperitif or with seafood. The vineyard is 100 years old and the wine will cellar for 10 but that would require more discipline than we have.

Spring Seed Wine Co Unwooded Chardonnay No malolactic ferment and no maturation in oak has made for a crisp type of chardonnay. Plenty of solids used in the ferment though so it's not lacking in body or character. Nectarines and white peach.

Grant Burge 10 year old Tawny Rich, thick and alluring with a perfect balance between alcohol, acid and sweetness. Plenty of nuttiness and deep fruit characters, excellent length.

Bodhi Tree McLaren Vale Shiraz 2012 This is sourced from a tiny organic and biodynamic (not yet certified) vineyard in McLaren Vale near Willunga. Has bright full fruit and amazingly expressive acidity.

Paxton McLaren Vale Tempranillo A "joven" style, medium bodied with an emphasis on bright fruit and savoury characters. Wild Ferment and bloody delicious

Heirloom Eden Shiraz We've been sweating on the arrival of this one for some time. We're pleased to report that it stacks up beautifully to the 2010, offering loads of dark, plush fruits, spice and complexity.

Leconfield Coonawarra Merlot - Trophy, Winestate Best Merlot of the Year & 94 points James Halliday MAGNIFICENT. Many of our customers have suggested that most Aussie merlot is crap, well suited to sluicing the s bend, commissioning ships and cauterizing pre gangrenous wounds. This one is a bloody ripper – violets, soft plummy fruits, creamy oak, awesome structure and powdery tannins. We had a fight at the end of the tasting panel to see who would take the rest home.

Tomich Hill Adelaide Hills Pinot Noir - 94 points James Halliday A lovely ripe Adelaide Hills Pinot, with exceptional depth of fruit, offering spice, cherry and plum.

Hunting Creek Limited Release Shiraz This is a rich and tasty beast offering plenty of sweet fruit and a lick of drying tannins.

Renards Folly Sangiovese Cabernet This is a medium bodied wine offering leafy Cabernet characters with savouries and spice from the sangy. Finishes with crunchy, dry tannins.

Halifax Grenache Noir A medium bodied beast full of spicy complexity and layers. Allow this one a little time to breathe to show its best .

Richard Hamilton Centurion Shiraz This is a brilliantly concentrated wine, full of layers of flavour, texture and concentration. Hamilton's Centurion Shiraz is sourced from Hamilton's own, tiny patch of 120 year old vines. In 1893 the push for federation began in Corowa, Gold was discovered in Kalgoorlie and Archduke Ferdinand of Austria was alive and well hunting Kangaroos in Oz. This is a brilliantly concentrated wine, full of layers of flavour, texture and concentration. Will cellar 20 years plus.

Pertaringa Over the Top Shiraz This is a big, rich red, with enough bright blue fruits whipping the black stuff into line. A goodly amount of acidity and highest quality oak too.

Alpha Crucis Delta Cru Cabernet A beautifully complex, rich and intense Cabernet from Chalk Hill. Fruit sourced from Chalk Hill's heritage vineyards dating back to 1897.

Teusner Albert Shiraz What a beauty, plenty of blackcurrant, cedar and chocolaty goodness. Fruit is good and bright, the oak tasty and harmonious.

Gemtree Phantom Organic Preservative Free Petit Verdot A fine, linear wine, medium bodied and delicious. Extremely well made and may cellar 10 plus but we'd recommend drinking over the next year or 2.

Lino Ramble Treadlie GSM Delicious, medium to full bodied and dry. Tobacco, minerality and chocolate here along with pencil shavings and other good stuff.

Alpha Crucis Cabernet A cracking, linear, intense, polished wine. Drinks beautifully after decanting but will also cellar well.

Coriole Estate Cabernet Barbera A classy and sinuous blend of Cabernet and Barbera. Spice and plush fruit combine with great length and fine, drying tannins.

Tim Adams Bayes Block Clare Valley Shiraz Bright fruit and a waft of pepper here. If you thought Bayes Block was good before, lookout ... this 2011 offering is a step up in quality. Lots of fruit and fine drying tannins.

Tim Adams Bayes Block Clare Valley Cabernet Dark intense fruits here and a blackcurrant creaminess. If you thought Bayes Block was good before, lookout ... this 2011 offering is a step up in quality. Rich cab fruit intensity..

Chalk Hill Sangiovese This is a very big Sangiovese. You'll need to decant it to get best effect, or chuck it in the dungeon for a year or 4. This edition is quite black, brimful of briar and spice and with a bit of mouth to mouth, quite delicious.

Hamilton Colton's GSM - 90 points James Halliday Glossy fruit here in spades, like this wine has been coated in slippery teflon. Silky, spicy and delicious.

Paxton Quandong Shiraz - 91 points James Halliday Lots of spicy blue fruit here along with peppery wafts. This is a single vineyard Shiraz, which is always among the most elegant of Paxton's offerings.

Gemtree Gemstone Shiraz - 90 points James Halliday Gemtree Gemstone Shiraz is a quality quaffer from the Gemtree huggers. Nice ripe, juicy fruits and oak sparingly applied. Good. Quaff on
